

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1887.

There are 177 trotters in the United States with records that beat 2:20.

Please cast your vote on Mr. Strong's ad. He means to put a bug in your ear.

Mr. Wm. Cotton has been appointed postmaster at Cottonburg, near Kirksville, in this county.

Mr. D. P. Armer left yesterday for Cincinnati where he will lay in a supply of goods for the holidays.

Mr. E. Burgin and family removed last week to Foxtown where they will occupy the O. Burgin home.

The Wherritt property has been sold by Dr. Heath to Dr. John Cornelison, of Waco, for $4,500. Dr. Cornelison will remove to Richmond.

John G. Taylor sold seven hundred barrels of salt during the month of November. Seven-hundred barrels go at $2.

Mr. J. R. Quisenberry, of Booneville, will leave the first of January for Fayette county where he will have a trotting home and stock farm.

Mr. J. D. Mitchell now represents the extensive wholesale grocery house of Ford, Eaton & Co., Cincinnati, and is gathering large and numerous orders.

The Barlow flouring mill are now running in full blast by the Richmond Milling Company composed of J. F. Brooks, J. B. Willis and D. R. Foreman.

Mr. A. B. Willis will sell on next Tuesday his stock, crop, farming implements and household on the premises eight miles from Richmond on the Jack's Creek turnpike.

The "Humpty Dumpty" show at the Court-house on Tuesday night was a rather tame affair. The programme was full of "cheats" left over from several seasons.

The house and lot on the corner of Main and Orchard streets, belonging to the estate of W. W. Hamilton, deceased, was sold Tuesday to J. A. Sullivan for $301.50.

The report of transfers of real estate in town lots for the month of November amounts to $17,754. The report of transfers in lands in Madison county amounts to $13,103.96 for last month.

Mrs. Mary H. Parrish has sold to George H. Myers the cottage on Second street now occupied by Mr. E. W. Wiggins, for $2,500. Mr. S. D. Parrish has sold to J. H. Altman a lot on Orchard street for $1,000.

Mr. Nat. Thompson, of Doyleville, the noted fisherman, was in town Monday with his leg broken. He didn't have a bandage on it and was walking around apparently as well as anybody.

Messrs. Tom Millon and Sam Deatherage are buying turkeys and paying the best prices. Call at their office over Holman's store. Josiah Simmons is buying hogs and will buy your hogs boys.

The Mendelssohn Quintette Club, of Boston, which gave a concert at the Court-house Monday evening, sold $100 worth of tickets. The entertainment was good, but a very small house greeted their appearance.

Auctioneer Bush reports the sale of unimproved land of O. Burgin, on the Homeborough pike, on Saturday, Dec. 3rd, as follows: 62½ acres to Mr. Calvin Burgin at $76.10 per acre. Amount of sale $4,756.25.

Mrs. Marie Wright, special correspondent of the Sunny South, was here yesterday in the interest of that well known southern journal, which is published in Atlanta—Danville Advocate.

On Thursday, Dec. 1st, at Commissioner Scott's sale of the Presley Rodes farm, situated on Otter Creek, Capt. Ballard reports as follows: 150 acres of land to Mr. J. A. Turpin at $27.05. Total amount of sale $4,057.75.

In giving an account of the concert in last week's CLIMAX, the recitation of Miss Minna Phelps which was done so ably, and received such hearty applause was omitted by an accident which we greatly deplore.

Messrs. Bates and Parrott, and not Bates and Patton, will sell a vacant lot at Kingston, on Saturday 10th, and Mr. Parrott and family, and not Mr. Bates and family, will probably remove from the county.

Mrs. Marie Wright, representing the Sunny South, was here Wednesday and took in subscribers by the score. Only a few of those who took the paper really wanted it, but they could not resist the appeals of a fascinating woman.—Stanford Journal.

Mr. Hal Cockrell, who shot and killed James Ackerlin in Irvine two weeks ago, gave bail in the sum of $1,200 at his examining trial. Judge Robert Riddell and Judge Fluty are for the defense, and V. P. Smith and A. R. Burnam are the prosecuting attorneys.

Miss Sue Hume entertained a host of friends last week and a royal time was had by the gallant little beaux and lovely little maids playing games etc., until the hour of six o'clock arrived, when a number of vehicles carried the little chatterboxes to their homes busily chatting about the delightful time at the party.

James J. Adams, who has been visiting his parents in this city for the past two weeks, left for his home in Richmond last night. Mr. Adams has been connected with the Register for the last six years, but will, on his return, accept the editorship of the CLIMAX. He is one of the best printers in the State, and Bro. Tipton can congratulate himself on securing the help of so worthy a gentleman.—Winchester Sun.

The Paris Kentuckian-Clifton is responsible for this: "In Fleming county recently a preacher borrowed a suit of clothes to wear while baptizing a convert. Somewhere in the suit there was a deck of cards which the owner of the clothes forgot to take out, and before the parson was finished out of the water, the cards were floating on the surface. Neither the parson nor owner of the clothes are strangers in Paris."

The highest price for hogs, of which we have heard, is 5 cents, but some parties are holding for $1; and one man has $50 for which he asks 5c.

Santa Claus' Mistake.

A Christmas Carol will be given at the Christian church, Friday evening, Dec. 23. The work is full of bright, happy songs, solos, duets and choruses, interspersed with interesting dialogues.

Fair and Fond.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will have a ball fair at the Court-house on Saturday of next week, the 17th, beginning at 10 in the morning and continuing all day. A fish-pond for the children will be a feature. Only 10 cents for a chance to fish.

Pass Him Around.

Prof. Miller, the mind-reader and slight-of-hand performer, who gave an entertainment at Madison Female Institute, slipped out of town without paying his printing bill. He is a clever performer in dodging a bill. If you find him telegraph us.

Sunday Night's Gas.

Mr. Adair, manager of the gas-works, tells us that the regular lighter for street lamps being sick last Sunday night, a new man lighted them, and not knowing where they all were failed to light a number. He assures us that such an over-sight will not again occur.

Changes.

Triville & Blount have moved part of their stock into the building house on First street, heretofore occupied by W. T. Edwards, and will run both houses until January 1st, when they will remove further towards Main street. Mr. Edwards has removed next door to wards Irvine street.

Loaded.

There were twenty-one loaded trains left the depot at this place on Saturday last. This looks very much like business, and it might truly be said that if Richmond gets a road to the mountains listed of twenty-one loaded trains a day it would be one hundred and twenty-one and business would improve accordingly.

Heavy Mortality in Sheep.

Messrs. James and Jacob Hugely, near Red House, cut off the tails of forty-four sheep, a month ago, and by the end of last week thirty-seven had died. The sign—if that has anything to do with it—is wrong, being in the heart. The sheep became stiff and helpless, and died in a few days.

Caught An Eagle.

Mr. James Harris, of Union City, was in town on Monday, and had a large eagle that he caught down on Muddy Creek, the other night while out hunting. He had a torch which blinded the eagle, and it flew down out of a tree and was caught by the dogs. He rescued it alive. It is found of rabbits and can eat a whole one at a sitting. The eagle is of a peculiar brown color.

Supper.

The ladies of the Christian church cleared about $100 after paying all necessary expenses at the supper Friday night. There was a good crowd who thoroughly enjoyed the nice supper which consisted of oysters, salads, ham, breads, rolls, ice cream, sherbet coffee, and a great variety of cakes. The proceeds go towards furnishing the Christian church with a new furnace.

Court Day.

Auctioneer Z. B. Bush reports small crowd in town and about 100 cattle on the market, half of which changed hands at 3c. Carruthers & Beall, of Lexington, bought 15 broke mules, prices ranging from $75 to $125; Wm. Arnold bought 15 broke mules, prices ranging from $100 to $150; Gentry Bros. purchased from Walker & Turley 31 broke mules for $4,425. Few plug horses changed hands at $35 to $75. Dull day; money scarce.

Taken for a White Cow.

As Mr. Wm. Warren, of Lexington, and Miss Ida Victor, of Millersburg, were going through the yard of Mr. R. McMichael in Lexington to rehearse for the McCord-McMichael wedding they were taken for a white cow and fired upon by Mr. McMichael, one shot grazing the lady's forehead and three shot entering the gentleman's forehead. Miss Victor visited here several years ago and will be remembered as the guest of Mrs. Chas. Powell. They were able to act as bridesmaid and usher at the wedding. As the gun was loaded with bird shot, nothing more serious than a good fright resulted from the shot.

Burned.

Walter the little five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Lynch who was badly burned on last Wednesday night while playing with matches, died last night. The little fellow got too near the fire in the grate and his gingham apron ignited, burning his clothes off him from his knees to his chest, inflicting a very painful though not a dangerous burn. His sister, Miss Annie, got to the child before the flames reached his head and succeeded in smothering them with a comfort which she threw over him. Dr. Roberts says the child complained very little of the pain since the first three or four hours which was very severe as the burns were right deep.

The Sams.

The Lancaster correspondent of the Stanford Journal had forgotten that this is Uncle Sam's country, when the subject was written: "What is in a name?" the poet wrote. Lots. There is Sam Miller, of Lancaster, Deputy Superintendent of a Government Department; Sam Peacock, of Lancaster, Postmaster; Sam Burdett, of Lancaster, Revenue Agent. If the Sams are going to run this country, why George will just step into the Register's office and be the first at the helm of this government and it may be right to give the Sams something. Little Sam Tilden saved the country in '76 and I guess that is the reason the Sams are coming to the front. Hurrah for the Sams!

Marriage Licenses For November.

The following marriage licenses were issued for the month of November: H. B. Land and Susie A. March; Wm. L. Smith and Della Turner; John G. Mays and Amelia Hazelwood; Speed McElchen and Eliza Kindred; Lee L. Todd and Martha E. Thorpe; P. S. Sowers and Mollie Foster; James E. Friend and Fannie T. Cyle; Wm. A. Vincent and Sarah F. Folks; Chas. B. Keirick and Sallie Ann Hunt; J. E. Tilton and Alice Sherrubury; Wm. D. Lewis and Mollie Finney; James E. Jones and Laura B. Hudson; A. E. Dillon and Rosetta Thomas; Thos. Scott and Silvery Riddle; J. A. Park and Lucy D. Fowler.

Kingston High School.

Mr. W. B. Smith delivered an address on Friday evening before Miss Anderson's High School, at Kingston, and his subject was education and educated tools. Mr. Smith addressed a good audience and the evening was the most flattering terms of Miss Anderson and her work. She has a new frame building which is a great ornament to Kingston, and a large patronage. Kingston is well supplied with schools, having a good public school in addition to Miss Anderson's, showing that the people are interested in education and work and appreciate the advantage offered them.

To The Rescue.

That prosperous institution, the Stanford Journal, has adorned and improved its office with a new Correll, tapeless, cylinder, power press. A machinist from the Franklin Type Foundry, Cincinnati, the best house in America, passed through Richmond last week from Stanford, where he had put up the press. He had scarcely gotten home when the engine exploded, and Brer Walton was left next thing to helpless. He sent for Richmond's former citizen, Mr. W. N. Potts, but for whom there would probably not have been an issue of the Journal last week. The Journal says: "For pure and unadulterated cleverness and the possession of a greater quantity of the milk of human kindness than most anybody, commend us to Mr. W. N. Potts, of the Stanford Flouring Mills. His assistance to us in getting our new machinery in order, can hardly be overestimated."

Insurance Man In Jail.

For two or three weeks, a man calling himself W. A. Lovell, did a small fire insurance business among the colored people of Richmond. He gave out names on long pieces, but collected in advance. On Friday night he was arrested for acting as agent for foreign companies without a city license. When arrested he denied that his name was Lovell, but when told that he must give bond or go to jail, he signed that name to the bond. But he could not secure a bondsman, and put up $50 instead. Next day, he was arrested on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. He had signed receipts for the Continental Insurance Co., but a telegram to that company was answered with a denial of any such agent. Letters in his pockets showed that Lovell has a wife at Morgan, Ky., and that he has probably deserted her. He has operated at Winchester, Lexington, Paris, and Paris, Tennessee. He claimed to be the colored people that he represented. The New Home, which he said was an excellent company, but that turns out to be a sewing machine company.

COLLEGE BILL.

Mr. C. C. Norris has been very sick for several days. A very interesting debate was held at the Academy last Saturday evening. Mr. John W. Grider has gone to Mercer county to spend a few weeks with relatives. Our village has been very unexpectedly honored lately by a visit from our old friend C. R. Adams.

Messrs. A. D. McKinney and A. W. Williams.

Mr. Andy Wallace, better known as "Bunk," spent a few days here last week. His visit was confined mostly to the vicinity of the parsonage. Messrs. G. S. Williams, Ed. Griggs and Wallace Norris went to Estill last week on a hunting expedition. They were accompanied by Miss Alice Williams and Mattie Griggs who visited Mrs. George Butler.

Dr. Comb has been repairing his store-house.

Dr. Comb has been repairing his store-house which has been rented by Mr. A. W. Williams. A new dry-goods and grocery store is to be opened up immediately and promises to make things lively about the burg.

PERKINS.

H. B. Robinson & Bro., will begin work the coming week to remove their store-room. They are calculating to move it whole just as it stands, and take it two hundred yards down the pike, and place it near his dwelling house.

Preaching at Sylom the second Sunday.

In the forenoon by Rev. Isom. He will also preach at Forest Hill school-house in the afternoon at half past 6 o'clock. Sunday-school after preaching.

Mr. Overton Biggerstaff was buying cattle in this vicinity last week.

He shipped them to Cincinnati Friday.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Thomas H. Embury has returned from the South. Miss Mary Scott, of Nicholasville, is the guest of Miss Mollie Fife. Col. D. W. Tribble visited his sister, Mrs. Nunnally, at Stanford, last week. Mr. John Doty and wife leave to-day for Loneok, Arkansas, to spend the winter.

Mr. W. R. Brock, of San Louis Obispo.

California, visited relatives here this week. Miss May Turner and Miss Alma Hagan, of Silver Creek, are visiting friends in Shelby county.

Dr. C. S. Holton has been quite sick.

with measles for the last two weeks and is still confined to his room. Mr. R. W. Smith, who is representing Duncan & Co., Grocers in Cincinnati, was at home for a few days last week.

Mr. Frank Ball, of Fort Worth, Texas.

visited his old home here, last week. He was a son of C. C. Ball, well-known here before the war.

Mr. Joe S. Rice, formerly of this place.

who has been telegraph operator for some time at Lebanon has been transferred to Horse Cave, Ky.

Mrs. John E. Garner and daughter.

Ethel, of Winchester, returned to their home last week after a short sojourn with Mrs. B. W. Turner.

Miss Belle Palmer, who made her debut.

last Wednesday evening, is a very handsome girl. She is tall, has a stately presence, is full of gaiety, and will be a charming addition to Louisville society. She has at present two very lovely guests, Miss Tomlin, of Tennessee, is a petite and pretty, Miss Phelps, of Richmond, is a slender and graceful brunette, with red markably fine eyes.

The trio has attracted many callers to the doctor's premises, in spite of the doctor's inhospitable gate, which is supposed to be secured by a secret spring. Several gentlemen who have called in the evening have been reduced to the necessity of climbing the fence.—Louisville Sunday News.

Charley Searcy, of Waco.

is flying high in Washington, as the subject of the Courier-Journal Bureau to-day were Senators Beck and Blackburn, Congressmen Stone, Montgomery, McCrory, Canth and Mr. C. L. Searcy, of Kentucky; Congressmen Bynum and Matson, of Indiana; Delegate Smith, of Arizona; Congressmen Whitthorne and Washington, of Tennessee; Congressman Allen Barry, of Mississippi; Senator Call of Florida; Sergeant-at-Arms Leedom, Postmaster Dalton, First Assistant Postmaster General Stevenson, Acting Land Commissioner Stocklager and Chief Clerk Youmans, of the Treasury.

RELIGIOUS.

Rev. Dr. Stewart, of Winchester, will preach at the Waco Baptist church Saturday and Sunday at 11 o'clock. Elder C. P. Williamson has just closed a protracted meeting of two week's duration at the Broadway Christian church, in Lexington, with nineteen additions.

We went wide of the mark when we said.

that the Baptist Church had employed Elder Harding for the ensuing year at Flatwoods. It was the Christian church, of course, as Elder Harding is a died-in-the-wool Disciple.

N. W. AYER & SON'S AMERICAN NEWS-PAPER ANNUAL.

The one thing needed to place N. W. Ayer & Son's American Newspaper Annual incomparably above any work of its class was the name of the Editors and publishers. This want has been supplied in the edition for 1887 now before us.

The edition under review has several such additions.

Besides the names of the Editors and Publishers noted above, it gives the subscription price of each paper, and street addresses in cities of 50,000 inhabitants and upward. It has also a list of all the Editorial and Press Associations in the country, with the names of their officers and time of meeting. The list occupies about 20 pages, and we believe it to be the first complete list ever published.

The method of giving the political statistics has been changed from the plan heretofore in use.

In that the vote of each political party is given by States and counties instead of simply the majorities or pluralities. In the matter of population much has been done in the effort to bring the reports as nearly as possible abreast with the times. Owing to the rapid growth of the population especially in some parts of the country, the census of 1880 is of little value. The census of 1885 has been used in all those States in which such census was taken.

While in the estimated population.

of figures may be open to criticism, they appear in the main to be approximately correct. Its complete and accurate catalogue of newspapers, with all necessary information concerning them, its admirably arranged county lists, its elaborate county and State descriptive headings, presenting in greater form all the points that advertisers need where judiciously to place their contracts; its special lists of religious and agricultural and class publications, and last but not least, its 250 pages of advertisements giving a mass of valuable information concerning a large number of journals which is necessarily excluded from the catalogue, all combine to make the Annual a trustworthy and valuable guide to publishers, advertisers and business men generally; while the care with which it has been compiled, its freedom from errors, its convenient arrangement, its beautiful typography and handsome binding render it unique in its kind.

It is sent, carriage free, for $3.00, by the Publishers, Philadelphia, Pa.
